

Gifted Screening

All students are screened for the gifted program in the first grade. A group measure of intelligence is administered in a classroom setting. Students who meet the criteria for this measure will have additional information collected to determine whether they demonstrate characteristic of giftedness.